

Controversy on Idaho's Water Proposal Boils

BOISE, Oct. 29. (AP) — The proposed water resource constitutional amendment was described yesterday as posing "no threat of any kind" to existing water rights in Idaho. State reclamation Engineer Carl Tappan, whose office handles all water right applications, said water rights already established "cannot now be disturbed, because water is appurtenant to the land."

"Any attempt to convince people that it can," he said, "is legal mischief-making." His statement was counter to assertions by the Idaho water committees, which oppose the proposed amendment.

In Idaho Falls, Rep. Don Pile, a veteran Democratic county Democratic lawmaker, asserted that the Idaho Power company is the "front organization opposing the water resource agency amendment."

The Idaho Power had no immediate comment. Joining in the support of the proposed amendment was Sen. William J. Doe, Grangeville, Idaho county Democrat, who was the minority leader in the senate in 1963.

"This amendment," Doe said, "has the endorsement of both of Idaho's political parties. I encourage its passage on the special ballot in November in order that Idaho may legally preserve its water resources."

Pile said that Idaho Power company "has enjoyed a monopoly in the use of practically every river across Idaho."

"I don't believe," he added, "they even want the state of Idaho competing with them in the development of any of these water rights."

Tappan said that at the special legislative session which adopted the proposed amendment, extensive hearings were conducted.

All the objections now being voiced," he said, "were heard there and carefully examined. Changes were made in the proposal to accommodate those objections."

"In the form in which the amendment is submitted for ratification, no threat of any kind is posed to any water right."

Committee Head Scores Proposed Bill

BOISE, Oct. 29. (AP) — The state of Idaho water committee head yesterday said the state's taxpayers "could end up paying the bill" if projects built with revenue bonds by a proposed state water resources agency proved uneconomical and went broke.

Adam Blackstock, Marsing legislator, disputed the contention by Gov. Robert E. Smylie and the state water resources agency administrator that the agency amendment to the constitution would not become a debt against the state.

"It is possible that the legislature might assume the obligation in the case of a bond default, to remove a black mark on the state's credit rating," he said.

"The very best," said Blackstock, "the next time state water looking for money it would find every door closed against it or would have to pay an exceedingly high interest rate as assumed by investors for another default."

"The people of Idaho would be denied the right to vote on whether this all-powerful agency in bonds to millions of dollars in bonds to finance the projects that may be politically inspired and of questionable feasibility."

The second annual sale of the Appaloosa breeders will be held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at President's sales pavilion.

Robert Hartney, sales chairman, reports that more than 30 choice Appaloosas, including show and prospect, mares, stallions and the choice geldings, including the fine show gelding, "Bartley Silver Drip," will be featured at the sale.

The sale will be managed by Milo and Lanchester and George Milo will be the auctioneer.

United Fund Gets Largest Contribution

The Twin Falls Bank and Trust company, including the Blue Lakes and Kimberly branches, pledged $2,354 to the Twin Falls United Fund, announces U. N. Terry, vice chairman of the U. F.

Terry said, "This is the largest contribution given by a single firm and its employees, not only during the present campaign, but during previous campaigns."

Terry stated "The Kimberly branch went far beyond the call of duty when it came through 100 per cent to the United Fund."

The bank employees not only contributed 100 per cent, but their contributions were unusually generous.

Hydrants Are Turned on by Pranksters

Twin Falls fire department added by city police were alerted Tuesday night turning on the water flow from fire hydrants which had been turned on, apparently by pranksters.

Fire plugs had been turned on at Third street east and Fifth avenue east; at the Robert Stark junior high school, on Heyburn avenue; at Blake and Shoup avenues and the 1,200 block of Eighth avenue east, according to police reports.

A spokesman for the fire department said that although they had no reports of serious damage caused by the water, certain plugs were turned on they could, because of the way they are pointed cause serious damage to property.

An alarm as a plug is opened the department can tell because of the drop in water meters in the station, the spokesman said.

HANDING ELECTION information to Ann Matcomson, left, is Mrs. V. M. Patrick, who is in charge of the League of Women Voters information booth, which will be open Thursday through Saturday. The water service activity of the league is conducted by present to voters non-partisan information on the election and candidates. The booth is located in front of the Twin Falls Bank and Trust building and will be open until 6 p.m. Thursday, 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday and 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday. (Times-News photo)

Annual Range Bull Sale Due Saturday

FILER, Oct. 29.—The 25th Idaho Cattlemen's association annual Filer and Range Bull sale will be held starting at 11 a.m. Saturday at the Filer fairgrounds, announces Curtis T. Eaton, Twin Falls, president of the Idaho Cattlemen's association. The sale will feature purebred Hereford range bulls and futurity, class of herd sire prospects. Judging of range bulls will start at 10 a.m. Friday and 11 a.m. Saturday.

Hay will be provided on the grounds by the association. Animals will be fed by the sellers until Saturday night, but from that time on, Eaton stated, the buyer will be responsible and a charge will be made for feed costs necessary for proper care of the animal or animals left on the grounds.

Eaton stated that the Idaho Cattlemen's association is a voluntary, statewide organization devoted entirely and exclusively to promoting and protecting the best interests of cattlemen.

There is no minimum number of cattle required for belonging to the association and it was pointed out that more than 60 per cent of the present members have less than 50 head of cattle.

The 51st annual convention of the association will be held Dec. 6-8 in Boise.

This will allow him to give virtually no representation to his home state. In fact, his nearly perfect score on many scales contrary to Idaho's interests proves we have little part in his services.

"Our farmers are in a state of near-depression and Utah has a 42-1 ratio of prime defense spending over Idaho," said Hansen.

"The ties are apparently too strong to break and Idaho cannot have strong and independent representation in the congress unless we have a change this year."

Robert Smith, Minidoka county GOP central committee chairman, introduced Hansen and Sen. Len Jordan, R., Idaho, who told of his personal experiences with Goldwater and attacked President Lyndon Johnson.

The invocation was given by Clark Cameron and Melvin Monor, who was master of ceremonies. All Minidoka county GOP candidates attending were introduced.

State Sen. Rodney Hansen and State Rep. Dale Garner each spoke briefly.

Tricky

MOSCOW, Oct. 29. (AP) — A Soviet newspaper reported Wednesday that A. Domorad, a citizen of Moscow, required the meter in his home so that it ran backwards and subtracted kilowatt hours. Domorad lowered his electricity bill by $110.

More than 800 other Moscow residents used the same trick and produced a total loss of $12,870 to the power company.

Heart Attack Takes Life of Auto Driver

A Beardon, Wash., man died of a heart attack early Thursday morning while driving his car along U. S. highway 30, about one fourth of a mile east of Twin Falls.

Berton Lester Beardon, 70, Beardon, Wash., succumbed to a heart attack and the 1963 Chrysler Imperial he was driving veered off the left side of the highway and struck a power pole. The impact of the collision shoved the car nearly back onto the highway, where it struck a fence post.

The car then veered back 117 feet onto pavement, across the four-lane highway and into a field where it swung south onto the pavement then rolled back into a borrow pit.

Mr. Beardon's wife, Etta, 67, also was in the vehicle but was uninjured.

Damage was estimated at $200 to the vehicle.

Idaho state police investigated and were assisted by city and county law officers.

Students Stage Rallies

TOKYO, Oct. 29. (AP) — About 10,000 leftist students throughout Japan staged meetings and rallies today to protest visits to Japanese ports by U. S. nuclear-powered submarines.

The former Kremlin chief was said to have taken a four-room apartment in a big red brick apartment house block from his former Kremlin office.

The Granovsky address is an old building put up in the 1920's to house Kremlin officials. This is a short side street, normally heavily patrolled by uniformed and plainclothes policemen.

Other tenants in the building include former Premier Vyacheslav Molotov, whom Khrushchev consigned to oblivion after a Kremlin power struggle in 1957.

The apartment opposite the Khrushchev was reportedly occupied by the former Red army Marshal Georgi Zhukov, whom Khrushchev fired as defense minister in 1957.

Candidates Talk On Communism in Election Speeches

President Johnson and Sen. Barry M. Goldwater drew closer to the wire today with communism a prime issue in their presidential election campaign race. Johnson said he had received a message from Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin saying the Russians want peace. The chief executive described it as "a heartening response." He added that "we must not underestimate the danger of communism — but neither should we estimate the danger to all the world if nuclear power is unleashed and we do not move toward peace."

Church Says Hansen Has Smear Campaign

Sen. Frank Church, D., Idaho, praised Cong. Ralph Harding Thursday as a "man of candor, courage and conviction, who deserves better than the abusive fear-and-smear campaign which his opponent has mounted against him." Speaking at a luncheon meeting of the Twin Falls Kiwanis club, the Idaho senator said he rarely dealt in personalities when engaging in a political campaign, but declared that "the Republican candidate George Hansen goes too far when he impugns Harding's loyalty by intimating that the congressman would disarm America in the face of the communist enemy."

"This is a vicious smear," Senator Church declared. "No one should stoop so low, when reaching for high office."

Church pointed out that Harding is a Korean veteran who holds a captain's commission in the army reserve.

"He has voted consistently in support of massive appropriations for our military forces during his two terms in congress," Church said.

Church said that Harding's support from contributors to the Council for a Livable World is in itself "a strong argument for his reelection." The senator said that the council is composed of "loyal and learned Americans" including atomic scientists who "know the terrible power they have contrived" and who "stand for a sane nuclear policy, including such enforceable measures as the nuclear test ban treaty."

"If Hansen does not, he should say so publicly, and he should say so now," Church said.

In Gooding at an evening rally Wednesday, Church declared that Harding's reelection was "indispensable if southern Idaho is to have an effective voice in the house of representatives during the next two years."

Congo Rebels Hold America Missionary

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo, Oct. 29. (AP) — An American missionary has been captured by communist-backed rebels and is awaiting trial by a military tribunal, a rebel broadcast says.

The missionary, Dr. Paul Carlson, 38, Holling Hills, Calif., has been in the Congo 14 months. Rebel warriors captured him Sept. 20 at Yakoma on the northern frontier, according to a communiqué issued by Christophe Chibwe, self-proclaimed president of the Congolese People's Republic in Stanleyville.

The rebels claimed Carlson was a major in the U. S. armed forces, but U. S. embassy officials say he only military experience was a two-year hitch in the navy.

Carlson's wife and two children fled to the neighboring central African republic with other missionaries during the rebel offensive last month.

American, 2 Reds Get Nobel Prize

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Oct. 29. (AP) — Dr. Charles H. Townes of Massachusetts Institute of Technology and two Russian scientists who have been his house guests were jointly awarded the 1964 Nobel Prize for Physics today for their contributions to the maser light beam.

At the same time the 1964 prize for chemistry was awarded Dorothy Crowfoot Hodgkin, 54, a biochemist of Oxford university, England, for her "determination by X-ray techniques of the structure of important biochemical compounds."

These prizes, each totaling $5,125, wind up this year's presentations from the foundation established by Alfred Nobel, the inventor of dynamite.

The maser beam, which greatly amplifies radio signals, has become commonly known as both a possible "death ray" and a potential means of aiding man in medicine. It has led to a revolution in radio and physics. Maser concentrates light energy similar to the way that a magnifying glass can concentrate the sun's rays.

Half the physics monetary award will go to Dr. Townes and half to the Russians, Prof. Nikolay Basov, and Aleksander Prokhorov of Moscow.

Dr. Townes, 40, conceived the idea for the beam in 1951. He and his students also coined the word "maser" which stands for microwave amplification by stimulated emission of radiation.

The 1964 Nobel awards previously announced:

Peace—Dr. Martin Luther King of the United States.

Medicine—Dr. Konrad Bloch, German-born American; and Dr. Feodor Lynen of West Germany.

Literature—Jean Paul Sartre of France. He has rejected the prize.

Prizes will be formally awarded in Stockholm Dec. 10, Nobel's birthday.

Youth Caught at Gooding Will be Juvenile Case

BOISE, Oct. 29. (AP) — Authorities have decided that 17-year-old Leslie Hoyt, taken into custody at Gooding last Saturday with Robert Brink, 19, will be processed as a juvenile.

Both are from Boise. Brink has been ordered to stand trial in third district court on a charge of second-degree kidnapping.

He is accused of taking the car of E. W. Chaffin at gunpoint early Saturday. Chaffin told police he was forced at gunpoint to drive out of town, then put out of his car.

Use of Absentee Ballots Indicates Big Vote

Heavy absentee balloting in many Magic Valley counties indicates Tuesday's general election may draw a record turnout of voters.

A check of county clerk's offices shows that in some counties the number of absentee ballots already issued is more than the total issued four years ago, while in others it is less.

The trend ahead of four years ago is shown by the fact that in 1960 figures, absentee ballots can be used through the election day.

In Twin Falls county an unofficial count showed 1,197 absentee ballots issued so far, compared to 1,084 total in 1964. In Blaine county, county clerk, said his office will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday to assist voters.

Minidoka county also reports an increase in absentee voting with 1,197 ballots issued by Thursday. This is approximately 100 more than ever have been used before, according to August Belknap, county clerk.

At Jerome, the absentee balloting is running about one-third more than in the last presidential election, according to Mrs. L. M. Meyer, county clerk. She said she expected the absentee voting to be 50 per cent ahead of 1960 by the end of the week.

An increase in servicemen's ballots partially explains the higher percentage, she said, since the local studios still have not been taken ballots.

At Shoshone, Mrs. Luella Kinsey, Lincoln county clerk, also estimates that absentee voting will run ahead of 1960 by Tuesday. So far 131 ballots have been issued, compared to a total of 144 in 1960.

Quite a few college students in Lincoln county are voting for the first time, Mrs. Kinsey noted. The trend ahead of four years ago is shown by the fact that in 1960 figures, absentee ballots have been mailed by the Camas county clerk's office, compared to 48 in 1960. At Burley, 352 ballots had been issued by the Camas county clerk's office as of Thursday and Frank Kearns, clerk, said they were running close to the number used in the last presidential election. To date the largest number of absentee voting has been done by servicemen.

At Tuley 234 ballots have been issued up to Thursday, while there were 335 persons voting absentee four years ago. But George McCoy, Blaine county clerk, said he feels there will be more local absentee balloting.

Gooding county clerk's office indicated absentee voting there is running about the same as in previous years.

Junior College Would Have Cultural, Academic Impact

A community junior college for Twin Falls county would have a considerable cultural and academic impact upon the county in the future, according to Jack M. Shaw, chairman of the Committee of 25.

Shaw said the college would provide, first, "an academic program that would permit a larger percentage of high-school graduates to continue their education. It would allow them to complete their freshman and sophomore years while living at home and then transfer to a four-year college to complete their college work," Shaw said.

"Secondly," he continued, "it would provide a vocational and technical training school for young people. We appreciate the fact that not all are physically and mentally equipped for graduate work," Shaw explained, but they are entitled to pursue their education and prepare themselves for productive employment.

In the third place, Shaw pointed out that the proposed county junior college would "provide opportunity for adult education. It would serve any adult over the age of 18 and a high school diploma would not be necessary academic trainings while others will enter vocational and technical work. The proposed Twin Falls county junior college will answer both needs as well as providing educational opportunities for adults and high school dropouts. (Times-News photo) for those who would want to take courses not for college credit. "A junior college in Twin Falls county would provide a cultural background that would be superimposed on the community and certainly would make the area more attractive to major industry," Shaw concluded.

Harding Tabs Farm Issue As Challenge

GOODING, Oct. 20 (AP)—A solution of agricultural problems was tabbed by Rep. Ralph Harding, D., Idaho, Wednesday night as "one of our greatest challenges."

"I recognized this fact when I sought assignment to the house agriculture committee," Harding told a capacity crowd at the Gooding elementary school.

He added that he realized at the time the serious problems facing agriculture but "welcomed the challenge of holding this post of such vital importance to Idaho—a state whose income is so dependent on a healthy farm economy."

"I can report to you," he said, "that net farm income increased 12 million dollars in the first year under President Kennedy and has remained over 800 million dollars higher each year and that taxpayers are saving 275 million dollars a year as a result of the reduction in surpluses."

The barbecue dinner at the Gooding elementary school was sponsored by the Gooding county central committee. A capacity crowd attended, reports Floyd Cross, county chairman.

Gooding county Democratic candidates were introduced as well as Lloyd Walker, Twin Falls, state Democratic chairman.

Ike Leaves Hospital, Is Back at Work

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Oct. 20 (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower was back in his office for a regular workday today after a week-long absence because of illness.

He suffered acute laryngitis and spent a week recovering at Walter Reed hospital in Washington.

It was necessary to cancel several Republican campaign speaking engagements.

Eisenhower also canceled plans to go to Mexico as chairman of the United States People to People program in connection with a salute to this country planned by the Mexican government.

The trip was to have started today and lasted through Saturday. Eisenhower's son, John, is representing him on the mission, the general's office said today.

WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28—In a country which pampers its youth, next Tuesday's election may well be decided by some 10 million-odd citizens living in what Madison Avenue has designated to be the "Golden Years."

Those folks, 65 or over, can swing the election to either Lyndon Johnson or Barry Goldwater. They are people who, quite rationally, vote the way they want and this year they don't have much choice. They will vote for the candidate who has angered them least in the matter of social security.

BOTH OFFER BENEFITS—Both candidates are going about the country claiming they had the old folks' interests at heart during the recent congressional battle over the social security bill which ended in a stalemate. Each has a point of a sort.

Goldwater favored the house version of the bill, which would have increased social security benefits by five per cent. President Johnson went along with the senate version, which would have added health insurance—medicare—benefits for those 65 and over. As was expected, the bill died when house and senate conferees were unable to agree on a compromise.

EACH BLAMES OTHER—Now each candidate is blaming the other for the tragic stalemate. Goldwater claims, with justification, that the administration deprived the aged of needed cash benefits by insisting on the provision for health insurance. In turn, Johnson's tactics on Capitol Hill succeeded in putting Goldwater on record as opposed to medicare.

The question that will be answered on election day is whether the aged wanted immediate cash benefits or were willing to go along with Johnson's objective of getting them medicare as well sometime in the future. Complicating this issue is that the President cannot guarantee he will deliver medicare. A medicare bill would have to be approved by the house ways and means committee and its chairman, Rep. Wilbur Mills, D., Ark., is firmly opposed to financing the program through social security taxes.

HELPED SELVES TO GRAVY—There is no way of knowing how the old folks feel about this one. But they have a right to their irritation. In the same session which pigeon-holed increased social security benefits, congress voted its members a whopping $7,500-a-year raise with a minimum of disagreement.

Indeed, senior citizens could not be blamed if they cast down a ballot on both houses. While congress was in session, Barry Goldwater did not attempt to use his influence in behalf of social security increases, he merely said he favored them. And Lyndon Johnson, whose arm-twisting rights bill, secured curiously powerful in his attempts to sell medicare to Wilbur Mills and company.

Next Tuesday, the old folks are going to get even with somebody—for doing nothing.

STRANGLER GOES FREE
Recent rulings by the U. S. supreme court in regard to methods of obtaining confessions are regarded as repugnant elsewhere than in Oregon. Here the state supreme court has held that a confession is inadmissible unless the police definitely warned a suspect before interrogation that he need not answer.

District Attorney George Van Hoomsden has said that 150 felons from Multnomah county may go free because of the change in rules. They were convicted largely on the strength of confessions properly obtained under previously established law. Now they may receive new trials and probable acquittal because the confessions were not obtained under rules now declared in effect.

In Washington, D. C., last week, a man who three times admitted strangling his wife and who led police to her buried body was acquitted. In the court of appeals Judge George L. Harbo, Jr. said the court of appeals had ruled the confessions were invalid because the method of questioning and the time the suspect was held before being charged were improper.

It almost makes me physically ill," said the lawyer. He did so with a heart, he said, because of a technicality. Regrettably, hundreds of guilty persons are likely in like manner drawn to the line around the constitutional rights of accused criminals—the Oregonian.

DR. KING'S PRIZE FOR PEACE
The Nobel peace prize honors a man who has risked leadership in the fight closest to his heart through peaceful means to peace. It is the highest of honors. Even as later prophets of civil rights argue over the degree of increased militancy that is necessary, Martin Luther King, Jr., remains the shining symbol of nonviolent resistance to injustice.

His idealistic methods brought early practical results. By eschewing violence even when it was directed at them, his followers maintained a moral position in the Christian terms he laid down for them. Like the followers of Gandhi, they found that nonviolence provided political leverage. If the results had been greater, the specter of violence would probably not have been born.

Not set up his peace prize for "furthering brotherhood" as well as reducing armies. Dr. King has eloquently encouraged non-violence with-averred eyes but "reconciliation, a coming together again."

The Negro must work passionately and unrelentingly for full stature as a citizen, he said. He must not use inferior methods to gain it. Dr. King has said, always declaring that "without dependence on God our efforts turn to ashes and our sunrise unto darkest night."

He said the Negro: "He must never come to terms with hatred, malice, hate, or destruction. It was, as the Nobel award recognizes, a sermon for us all—Christian Science Monitor.

PETS, PEOPLE AND MOTELS
Hal Boyle said the other day that pets lead and people follow.

Something of what he had in mind is found in the story of man who wrote to a motel to ask whether dogs were allowed there.

The man received the following reply from the motel manager:

"I've been in this business for more than 30 years. Never has a dog let fire to a bed with cigarettes. Never have I had to call the police to a motel towel or blanket in a dog's suitcase. Never have I discovered a ring on the dresser made by a dog's bottle."

"Sure the dog is welcome... and it'll vouch for you. You may come along too."

How do you like that, dog lovers?—Coachen

DO AUTOS KEEP YOU NIMBLE?
Too long has the car industry been the whipping boy for those who have been hit by the car, young and old. These critics claim we do not move enough and exercise enough because of the automobile; that our athletes can't measure up to anyone—the prowess of foreign athletes.

We say this is unfair. Americans are the most nimble and spry people in the world because of the modern cars. They have to be to get in and out of them—Bloomfield (Mo.) Vindicator.

POT SHOTS

PET HANDICAPS
Dear Pot Shots:
A friend once told me her family had given up trying to have a cat in the family because they lived near a school. Children pick up and carry home the cat, only to receive a "No!" Thus, another cat is without a home. No doubt small dogs and puppies meet the same fate.

I was reminded of this the other day when driving on Sixth street north near Lincoln school. I believe we started a young cat walking west, up against the playing field fence. He turned in an opposite direction. That caused us to notice him. He kept looking around, all directions, as though he were surely lost. I have been haunted by the poor, bewildered creature ever since. I find I lived in town, or not been late getting home, I should have tried to locate the owners. Perhaps they will read this. He was about a year old, black, short-haired.

Reminds me, too, that this is a time of year in which townpeople are dumping their surplus pets in the country to freeze and starve, while country people dump theirs in town. I am a bit afraid of strangers in the strange land of the city where they don't know how to find mine. In both places there are hostile dogs and traffic to contend with. Be merciful. With gentle handling, they can be shot through the head without knowing what struck them. Surprising that some of those lily-fingered hunters should take the cold, cowardly way out—just 1080 cm—or is it?

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

NEW YORK, Oct. 28—For both political parties the stakes in the presidential race in New York are out of sight. It is less than the shape of the two-party system and the nature of the presidential campaign four years hence can turn on the outcome.

It is not that the two candidates—Sen. John F. Kennedy, Republican, and Robert F. Kennedy, Democrat—are Marquis Childs opposed in ideology. They both belong in the same tradition of the New Deal and the New Dealism. Kennedy is called the malcontent of American political thinking. Kennedy invokes his liberal voting record in almost every speech. Kennedy has the identity of the New Deal and his brother, the late President John F. Kennedy.

There the similarity ends. For part of the drama of this contest lies in the utter dissimilarity of the two men. Kennedy, with his white teeth and his rather benign face, draws on his 38 years of experience in congress, 12 in the house, six in the senate. He pokes fun at the carpetbagger from Massachusetts who can't vote for himself on Nov. 3 because he hasn't lived in the state long enough.

"Why, he thinks Cowan is a part of the digestive tract," Kennedy says. "He's been campaigning in this state from New York to Montana. You know my opponent thinks Montana Point is at the end of Cape Cod instead of the top of Long Island."

In contrast, Kennedy looks much younger than his 38 years. If Kennedy appears relaxed and even a little weary with the whole business, his opponent has the tension of a coiled spring. He and his team, most of whom came with him from the department of justice, are constantly in motion. Coming from an evening meeting, Kennedy spots one of the speakers and he dashes from the car to join him for a few minutes, welcoming the crowd that closes in for handshakes and autographs.

While Kennedy has been campaigning four years ago, Kennedy has never run for office. This may be one reason he resents so bitterly Kennedy's charge that as attorney general he entered into a deal with the Kennedys to return a big chunk of enemy alien property—the General Aniline and Film corporation—to the company's former owners allegedly slightly favor him, and the odds are against him. He will be able to consolidate a base in what is reaching power with the most. Given his own drive and deep-rooted family ambition, he will move quickly to end the planned conclusion of the Democratic party in 1968. Kennedy's high on the Kennedy agenda, with the Kennedy candidate ready and willing to have support in a half-dozen states from Kennedy loyalists. If not 1968, then 1972 for the big prize. That is how high the stakes are.

For Kennedy it is not alone personal survival. The money and the effort of the party have been put behind him in the national campaign all but lost. He can win, if enough Republicans, independents and liberals split their tickets and vote for him in the same time they vote Democratic on the national ticket. The party may not be whole merged. If Kennedy goes, the late second party is dark indeed.

It might after the election he said the voters have given him a mandate for "big changes" over the whole field of government.

And here, whether the speaker is Kennedy or John F. Kennedy, the stakes are high. Kennedy is the only man to the rest of the world, foreign dealing and dictating. Goldwater has had no say in foreign affairs, is not even on the foreign relations committee.

In Johnson's 11 months in office, he has had to make some foreign decisions. He had a lot of domestic chores to do and concentrated first on them. Then on the election campaign.

He has been aware of the foreign problems but all three nations—this country, Britain and the Soviet Union—have been much rocking along as they were between Kennedy, Macmillan, and Khrushchev.

Since Britain is an ally it can be assumed its relations with this country will remain on a fairly quiet plane. The real task for the new president is to understand what the new Soviet leadership means and to cope with it.

Interpreting the News
BY JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, Oct. 29 (U)—The year 1965 will be the year of the jockeys, no matter who wins the presidential election. New leaders in Britain, the Soviet Union and the winner here will be jockeying for position on the foreign policy track.

They try to figure out an answer to the other out it should be a busy, even a harrowing, year with perhaps fresh crises and unpredictable directions.

A new crew will be running the Kremlin. The Laborites, for a change, will be running Britain. The American president, Lyndon B. Johnson or Barry Goldwater will be comparatively new in foreign dealings.

Just about a year ago all three governments were headed by men who, by trial and error, had learned to know and deal with each other. The Soviet Union, Prime Minister Macmillan in Britain and President Kennedy here.

Macmillan, the first to go, quit last October. Last November Kennedy was inaugurated. The new crew will be comparatively new in foreign dealings.

The Doctor Says
BY WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Q—What causes the dermatitis that comes under the dermal? What is the best treatment? A—Chafing may occur where over two moist skin surfaces rub together. Persons who are fat have the most trouble with it but it may occur in anyone. One of the causes is the chafed area becomes inflamed and they are susceptible to local infection, especially with ringworm or some other fungus. This may keep the dermatitis going indefinitely.

In general, treatment consists in keeping the area clean and dry and free of irritants. For this purpose, the doctor may want to use a solution of potassium acetate or bichloride of mercury applied for 30 to 60 minutes then gently dried. Camelline lotion with phenol and menthol may be applied to relieve the itching and a dusting powder or zinc stearate powder will help keep the area dry.

The inflamed area is made worse by overreliance on solutions that are irritating or do not work. So have your doctor advise you before you use anything on these areas. The finds evidence of a fungus infection.

DOUBLE DUMMY CAN BEAT HIM
Twenty years ago, most players would double the one club opening with the South hand. This type-double has disappeared in expert play since it is too likely to hurt the player who uses it. Someone has spades and if that ly have afforded a jump to four hearts.

He merely bid three and all Morehead points out in "Morehead on Bidding" that this was the correct bid.

South was pretty sure that he could make at least four tricks. He was willing to take the risk and make three hearts plus another trick or two rather than to force his opponent to force.

His decision was a good one. He did make 10 tricks, but if he had bid four hearts, West would almost surely have bid four spades.

Spades can be beaten by a trump lead, but if North opens the ace of hearts and continues the suit, West can make four tricks by doubling dummy's heart.

West ruffs the diamond, enters the hand with a trump, takes a second club finesse, ruffs a heart, leads a club to dummy's ruffs a club and leads a diamond. The North can't get the lead to play a trump and West makes his last trump as well as both of dummy's.

CARD GAME
Q—The bidding has been North-South 3-4. What do you do? A—3-4 is a weak hand. You must show heart support. Your partner continues in three spades. What do you do now? Answer: Next time

Fort Hall Man Charged With Murder

POCAHELLO, Oct. 20 (AP)—Gilbert Punkin, a 27-year-old Fort Hall man, was charged yesterday afternoon with murdering his brother-in-law last Friday.

U. S. Attorney Sylvan A. Jeppesen signed a charge of first degree murder against Punkin, accusing him of shooting Frank Moncalso, 34-year-old farm laborer. Moncalso's body was found shot to death Friday morning in the Ross Fork creek area of the Fort Hall Indian reservation.

Punkin was arraigned yesterday afternoon before U. S. Commissioner R. D. Blatline in Pocatello. He asked time to consult an attorney before saying whether he wants to waive a preliminary hearing.

Blatline ordered Punkin held in the Bannock county jail without bond.

The commissioner said if Punkin can arrange for an attorney, he will have a preliminary hearing this week. If not, Blatline said Punkin will have to wait until U. S. district court convenes here again on Nov. 5.

The charge was filed in federal court because the alleged crime occurred on federal property and involved federal wards.

Moncalso, from Farmington, N. M., was married to Pinoma Maxine Punkin Moncalso, 23, Spila Gilbert's sister.

Jeppesen said the charge against Punkin charges him with killing Moncalso with "premeditation and malicious aforethought."

News Around Idaho

NOISE, Oct. 29 (AP)—A public hearing is scheduled at the state house Friday on proposed changes in regulations governing the use of extremely toxic rodenticides. Dr. T. O. Carver said the state board of health is concerned because there are no effective antidotes for some of them, and they are used in places where food is prepared, stored and served.

REXBURG, Oct. 29 (AP)—Robert H. Purcell, secretary of the Lewiston Chamber of Commerce, concluded with an address here today a series of talks in support of the proposed Port District Constitutional amendment which will be on the Nov. 3 general election ballot. The amendment would authorize issuance of revenue bonds to finance construction of port facilities. It would apply only to Lewiston, since it requires that ports eligible to use the amendment must be connected to an ocean by a waterway. Dams now under construction in the Snake river will provide slack water navigation facilities as far upstream as Lewiston. Purcell said opposing to the proposed amendment has come generally from those who "have indicated a fear of anything governmental."

NOISE, Oct. 29 (AP)—The bureau of land management said today it is offering six parcels of land in Bonneville county for sale at an auction in Boise Jan. 6. The tracts range in size from 40 to 160 acres and are located in mountainous country south and east of Ammon, about 10 miles southeast of Idaho Falls.

NOISE, Oct. 29 (AP)—Fire danger in southern Idaho timberlands still is "extreme" because of the closed fire season, said William R. Horlner, assistant state forester. "Three large range fires have occurred as a result of careless range burning. In addition, several sizable fires have been caused by careless smoking habits of range hunters," Horlner said. He said that individuals who set fires which burn hunters, state or private lands are liable for prosecution on trespassing charges and for payment of fire suppression costs. If the fire danger continues, Horlner said, it may be necessary to order an emergency closed fire season.

NOISE, Oct. 29 (AP)—Dr. Myrvick W. Pullen, superintendent of North Idaho North, said Idahoans would use community mental health centers if they were available. He offered as proof a ten-fold increase in voluntary admittance to Hospital North. He addressed the inter-agency steering committee on mental health. It was at work today on preparation of a statewide mental health program.

POCATELLO, Oct. 29 (AP)—A 50-year-old Idaho Falls rancher, Walter Pancher, has been fined $4,000 on charges of evading federal income taxes and directed to pay the fine within 30 days. Sentencing came yesterday after Pancher withdrew a plea of innocent in the third trial, and entered a plea of guilty to evading taxes. He was fined $4,000 on charges of evading taxes. He was fined $4,000 on charges of evading taxes. He was fined $4,000 on charges of evading taxes.

NOISE, Oct. 29 (AP)—Idaho's 1964 "grainman of the year" will be chosen from among winners in four districts named by the state selection committee. They are Graydon Storey, Oakeside; Don Davis at Gene Davis, Brunner; state Rep. Vard Chaburn, Albion; and Joe Dyer, Blackfoot. The winner will be selected at the annual state chamber of commerce meeting Nov. 9 in Boise.

NOISE, Oct. 29 (AP)—Idaho's highway toll stood at 213 today with the death of 17-year-old Ronald L. Woods, 69, State Highway 20, near the intersection of Highway 69 last night and the truck was turning left at the Utah road intersection when the collision occurred. Diane A. Elam, 21, Eagle, the driver, said she didn't see the motorcycle or rider until the impact. Woods was thrown about 35 feet and coroner E. M. Paris said he died instantly.

IDAHO FALLS, Oct. 29 (AP)—A man believed to be Al Larsen, a Blackfoot sheep shearer, fell into a channel of the Snake river yesterday afternoon and is presumed drowned. Police said two witnesses reported seeing a man fall from the bridge and into the river not far from the Eagle Rock powerhouse.

NOISE, Oct. 29 (AP)—Architect Charles Hummel has been directed by the legislative committee's building subcommittee to prepare artist's sketches of proposed remodeling of the Idaho state capitol chambers. The plans involve extensive changes, including removal of pillars which support the dome on the house side. Permanent walls would be erected in the chambers to replace curtains which separate the legislative floors from the corridors. Lieut. Gov. William E. Dreyfus was given authority to prepare the legislative chambers for remodeling. The remodeling is scheduled to start Jan. 4. Dreyfus said he will come to Boise Dec. 1 and remain until the remodeling starts.

POCATELLO, Oct. 29 (AP)—The Chubbuck Lumber and Supply company was burned yesterday and destroyed the loss at Pocatello. The fire completely demolished the two-story building. Cause was undetermined. General manager Harry Glaser said the facility would be rebuilt as soon as possible. Four buildings were destroyed—two lumber sheds, an office building with a hardware store and a warehouse. The fire started about 2:30 a.m. in the warehouse used for plywood storage.

NOISE, Oct. 29 (AP)—The executive secretary of the Idaho Veterans commission, Samuel Vance, Jr., has agreed to take an indefinite leave of absence after suggesting that politics were involved in a decision to make him step down. The commission yesterday accepted Vance's resignation. Vance had been executive secretary since 1948 and commandant at the veterans' home for more than a year. Earl Chandler, elected commission chairman, said he decided at a meeting Oct. 6 to ask Vance to resign.

NOISE, Oct. 29 (AP)—A proposed constitutional amendment making terms of county sheriffs four years, instead of the present two, would have no effect on those elected next Tuesday. An attorney generally explaining the proposed amendment said it would, if approved, instruct the legislature to provide for the election of a sheriff every four years. The change would not be effective until the legislature amended the present law.

KELLOGG, Oct. 29 (AP)—Mrs. Lela Shreve, 43, Wardner, has been bound over to district court on a second murder charge in the death of 4-year-old Virginia Davidson Oct. 5. Justice Joe Irvine ruled after a preliminary hearing that there was enough evidence to warrant court action and set bond at $25,000. He also denied defense motions to reduce the charge to involuntary manslaughter. The child had been held in Mrs. Shreve's home by the Idaho department of public assistance for foster care. She was found beaten and strangled in the basement of the home. Deputy Frank Ormkevich testified that Mrs. Shreve told him she punished the child for refusing to get out of bed and eat by putting her in the basement with a chain around her neck and turning out the light. He said the child weighed 22 pounds. Irvine ruled the bond, which had been $25,000.

Autographing Tea Slated Sunday for Buhl Woman

BUIL, Oct. 29 (AP)—Mrs. May Napier Burkhardt will be fete at an autographing tea to be hosted by the Buhl Business and Professional Women's club from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday at the home of Mrs. Floyd Dais, located one-fourth of a mile east of Buhl on Highway 20.

The event is being held to acknowledge the publication of Mrs. Burkhardt's book of poetry entitled, "Shakespeare Was Never Bred in Buhl." The book, which is available at this time and Mrs. Burkhardt will autograph them. Club members will assist with serving refreshments. The public is invited.

The 53-page book, which features an attractive red binding with an eye-catching white cover, has been published by the Triangle publishers, Dallas, Tex. It is dedicated to Earle and Inez Holman. He is the editor of the Antigo Daily Journal, a former employer of Mrs. Burkhardt, and Mrs. Holman is a former college schoolmate. The book also is dedicated to Virginia and Woodrow Ash, Buhl, who helped edit the book.

Both serious and humorous Mrs. Burkhardt's book of poetry is modern and contains wit and humor. Not all are reprints though many have been published in Midwest newspapers and magazines, according to Mrs. Burkhardt.

Mrs. Burkhardt began her career in journalism at the age of 11 as a reporter for the Antigo Daily Journal in Wisconsin and at this age had her first poem published. She has been writing ever since.

An extensive educational background also marks her life. She graduated from the Landale college in Wisconsin, attended Milwaukee Teachers' Normal and the University of Wisconsin.

In 1950, along with her son, John Burkhardt, and daughter-in-law, Anita, Burkhardt, she was elected from the University of Idaho. Mrs. Burkhardt received a Phi Beta Kappa honor pin and bachelor of arts degree in English and Spanish. She also attended the University of Montana in Missoula and has credits towards her master's degree.

Mr. and Mrs. Burkhardt moved to Idaho in 1937 and both taught in the Carey school system for a number of years. They moved to Buhl 10 years ago and Mrs. Burkhardt assumed a teaching post in the Buhl high school.

She was librarian and instructor in English and Spanish, until three years ago. Upon retirement she assumed duties as librarian and taught Spanish in the Buhl Catholic Church of the Immaculate Conception parish school. She currently gives private tutoring lessons in Spanish in her home.

She has served as correspondent for the Halley Times-News and has done free lance writing for the Denver Post and Salt Lake Tribune. She has one son, John Burkhardt, formerly of Nome, Alaska, now of Aberdeen, S.D., serving in the

Walker Asks For Apology From Hansen

Lloyd Walker, Twin Falls, state Democratic chairman, called on George Hansen, the second district congressional candidate to "apologize to the people of Idaho for attempting to perpetuate a hoax by hiding his out of state campaign contributions."

Walker charged in a statement Thursday that "Hansen has reported only $4,227.06 as his expenditures to date in his congressional race. This," Walker declared, "will not even cover his billboard costs, let alone his exorbitant television and newspaper advertising."

"However, the most revealing item in the report to the clerk of the house of representatives is a $2,000 contribution by BIPAC," which Walker said is "the political organization of the National Association of Manufacturers."

"Idahoans," he stated, "should be shocked to know that while the BIPAC reports the contribution, Hansen has failed to report receiving it. Maybe it is because the National Association of Manufacturers was an opposing witness to the much needed Burns creek project," Walker charged.

"The Democratic chairman suggested that Hansen's reason for not reporting the alleged campaign expense 'because Hansen is merely trying to hoodwink the people of Idaho in not reporting the source of his campaign finances.'"

Walker charged that Hansen "had $5,000 of unreported campaign contributions in the primary" and that he now has "failed to report at least $20,000 in general election expenses."

"Idahoans," he said, "should be grateful to BIPAC for truthfully reporting their contributions to Hansen's campaign and revealing that he has received $2,000 from one of the main opponents of the Burns creek project," Walker concluded.

Ship to Mars Could Get Good Photos

CAPE KENNEDY, Oct. 29 (AP)—Two spacecraft set to be rocketed toward Mars next week could produce "pictures showing mile-long features on the intriguing Martian surface."

But to do it, the federal space agency said yesterday, the twin Mariners probes will have to complete the most difficult unmanned space mission yet attempted by the United States.

Each of the sophisticated spacecraft carries a single television camera, rigged to take up to 22 photographs of Mars when it passes the little planet next July after a 350-million-mile voyage.

The 675-pound Mariners also are expected to measure radiation, magnetic fields and speed data near the red planet and to study the Martian atmosphere.

The first of the planetary probes is scheduled to be launched Nov. 4, with the second following as early as two days later. The launch period ends in early December with the opportunity coming in late 1964.

If the Mariners' planned paths are achieved, the spacecraft will pass from 7,000 to 10,000 miles above the Martian surface between the Mars equator and south pole.

Jerome Hopefuls State Ideas

JEROME, Oct. 29 — Jerome county legislative candidates in Tuesday's election point out their stands on current state issues.

J. H. Seely, Republican, incumbent state senator, is opposed by Roy Hill, Valley high school teacher and counselor. Seely, veteran senator, has done little campaigning, stating that his record as a county commissioner, school trustee, highway district representative and state senator, "speaks for itself."

Hill has stressed in his campaign that he will work for 50 per cent state support for public schools, and favors a broad base tax and a revision of Idaho tax structures. He has stated that Jerome county needs a young, energetic and effective state senator.

Fred Nelson, Republican, incumbent state representative, is opposed by Harold Jenkins, Democrat. Nelson, a Jerome county farm owner for many years, was appointed to fill the unexpired term of James Marthy, when Marthy moved to Cassia county.

Nelson has advocated a complete review of Idaho's current tax structures. He also states if he is returned to the legislature he will review all reappointment suggestions in terms as to how they will affect Jerome county.

He has gone on record as favoring parimutuel racing in Idaho, altho it is now a law, however, he is opposed to legalized gambling—which could be controlled by out of state interests.

Jenkins, a graduate of Idaho high school, Albion State Normal and a Jerome county farmer, favors the goal of 50 per cent state support for public schools.

Jenkins is also in favor of parimutuel racing and advocates a continued study of a broad base tax which, he feels, is fair to all Idaho citizens.

These candidates have been extended an invitation to speak before the Jerome Educational Association at 4 p.m. Thursday. Questions for discussion will include "Are Idaho elementary and secondary schools adequately financed and if not what do you propose to do toward adequate financing and what is your feeling toward the 50 per cent state support of education, based on a $400 expenditure per student in average daily attendance? Do you feel this is a realistic figure?"

If time permits, the candidates will be questioned as to their stand on the requirement of two-thirds majority as against a simple majority for bond issues and other mill levy elections.

Steel Price Tab Is Kept By Johnson

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29 (AP)—President Johnson is keeping close contact with the steel price situation and is understood to feel that it would be very difficult now to justify further increases in steel prices.

Reaction to the report was swift on Wall Street. The price of the stock of U. S. Steel fell $1 1/2. Prices of most other big producers also dropped but not as sharply.

According to sources familiar with the President's thinking, the chief executive shares the appraisal indicated in Fortune magazine for November that the nation's economy now has momentum to sustain its advance until at least mid-1965. But his economic advisers, it was indicated, suggest that further action by that time may become necessary.

This action would include a revision of excise tax rates, which are now due to expire on June 30.

The arguments submitted against a steel price boost at this time include:

1. Steel industry profits for the first nine months are 20 per cent above those for the same period of last year; and, 2. steel imports have been going up, from about two million tons a year to the current five million tons; if present trends continue imports might rise to seven million tons a year by 1965. Steel exports, at the same time, have declined.

This spelled a loss of about a billion dollars a year in foreign exchange, in turn affecting the balance of payments position. President Johnson was said to feel that the steel industry is able now to finance further plant modernization and thus make itself more competitive in the international market place. Johnson is watching all aspects of the steel situation, it was said, with particular reference to preliminary moves to revise the union wage contract subject to modification by June 1965.

Briton Ousts 3 Colleagues, Replaces Two

LONDON, Oct. 29 (AP)—Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home ousted three old colleagues yesterday and named two younger ones as his heirs apparent in selecting the "shadow cabinet" for Britain's Conservative party.

The group, which would become the official cabinet if the Conservatives return to power, will speak for the Conservatives against the Labor party in parliament. Douglas-Home and his Conservatives were defeated by Labor in the parliamentary elections Oct. 15.

Reginald Maudling, 47, who served as Douglas-Home's chancellor of the exchequer, and Edward Heath, 46, the former president of the board of trade, moved into London to succeed the defeated prime minister if and when he resigns as party leader.

Douglas-Home ousted Home Secretary Henry Brooke, Power Minister Frederick Cresswell and William Deedes, minister without portfolio. The three had been criticized widely for their governmental policies.

Two "rebels"—Ian Macleod and Enoch Powell—returned to the front bench. Macleod will serve as spokesman on steel and power and Powell as "shadow transport minister."

Gov. Smylie Talks to Ohio GOP Rally

LIBBON, O., Oct. 29 (AP)—Gov. Robert E. Smylie said last night that a campaign statement by an Ohio congressman will help elect a Republican to congress in Idaho's second congressional district.

Speaking at a Columbiana county Republican rally, Smylie also said that Sen. Barry Goldwater and running mate William Miller "represent and typify the kind of courage the nation needs."

Smylie said it was a special pleasure to campaign for Allan Dalrymple, seeking election to congress. He said that Rep. Mike Kirwan, D., O., came to Idaho "and told us that we must, and I repeat must, elect an incumbent Democratic congressman, or from the power of his position on the house appropriations committee he would shut off funds for one of our most needed reclamation and flood control projects."

"Well, Idaho will not respond to that kind of threat or coercion except in black rebellion against the threatener. We are going to elect a Republican to congress to see if Mr. Kirwan can coerce his committee against us, as he has tried to coerce our voters."

He referred to the lower Teton project in southeast Idaho, and to Rep. Ralph Wauding, D., Ida. Smylie urged election of Republican.

Halloween Party Held in Burley

PILER, Oct. 29 — The Clover Parent Teacher League will hold a Halloween party for school children and parents at a p.m. Friday in the school auditorium. Children are to wear costumes.

Entertainment will be under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hartwig, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Knier, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Lerman, and Mr. and Mrs. Myrl Schroeder. Prizes will be awarded the best, funniest and prettiest costumes. There will be a number of games and contests.

The refreshment committee includes Mr. and Mrs. Orval Reinke, Mr. and Mrs. Rene Burkhalter, Mrs. Anita Mook and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Aufderheide.

ert Taft, Jr., to the senate, praised Gov. James Rhodes, and said "all of us in the Republican party, regardless of where we were or who we were with before San Francisco," are behind Goldwater.

"We need courage in the White House so that the new communist leadership of Russia will know exactly where we stand, and so that our allies can depend on us to do what we say," said Smylie.

"There are times when I have disagreed with Senator Goldwater, but there has never been a time when he took a position that you and I knew was not based on his beliefs, but the latest public opinion poll."

Election Law May Have Flaw

BOISE, Oct. 29 (AP)—Possibly the courts wouldn't agree, but Idaho's election laws appear to contain an unconstitutional flaw.

Section 34-634 states that candidates who receive the same number of votes for the same office shall have their names put in a lottery. Various witnesses are required, depending on the office for which there is a tie.

Idaho's supreme court has ruled that the state constitution forbids lotteries. Its historic ruling against slot machines in the Garden City case a decade ago, the court said a lottery exists if there are three elements present: chance, consideration and prize.

If candidates decide the outcome of their race for an office by lot it would seem that the element of chance is present. If the winner gets the job it would appear that there is the element of prize.

This leaves the test of consideration. There is one argument that maintains consideration is present because candidates pay filing fees. There is another that contends the filing fee is too far removed from a tie-breaking lot to constitute the element of consideration.

Nevertheless, when the next legislature takes another look at the election laws—as many public officials already have urged—it might give some thought to the method used to break ties in hotly-contested races.

The method prescribed for breaking ties, however, is not the only possible flaw in the laws that govern elections in Idaho. When the lawmakers rewrote the statutes in 1953 they left a place or two of the old primary election runoff provisions on the books.

After this year's primary, a lawsuit was threatened because the winner in the Republican race for nomination to congress from the second district did not receive 40 per cent of the votes cast.

This, of course, was part of the old runoff provisions which the legislature intended to repeal when it adopted the pre-primary convention system. But the 40 per cent requirement inadvertently was left in the law while the machinery for the runoff was repealed.

Of perhaps more concern to those who seek public office is the primary election law provision which limits campaign expenditures by candidates. Many officials, including Gov. Robert

E. Smylie and Secretary of State Arnold Williams, consider the limitation not only unrealistic but unconstitutional.

More than one candidate has spent more than the law allows in making a bid for party nomination and some even have said so. But there's no way to punish them for violating the law.

Some officials would like to see the laws completely revamped, removing inconsistencies, updating provisions that no longer are applicable and possibly knocking out the pre-primary convention system. Some also would like to see the legislature rewrite the voter registration provisions to tighten them up against possible election fraud.

Troops Fire At Miners In Bolivia

LA PAZ, Bolivia, Oct. 29 (AP)—Army troops fired on a group of miners early today in Sora Sora, the national radio at Huamuni announced.

First reports said 30 miners were killed and many injured by the machine gun fire.

Sora Sora is about 12 miles from the tin-mining center of Oruro, 130 miles southeast of La Paz.

The clash at Sora Sora was the latest incident in a week of violence between supporters and communist-backed opponents of President Victor Paz Estenssoro.

At least 40 persons had been killed in earlier clashes.

The radio station at Huamuni said the shooting at Sora Sora took place when the army tried to stop the miners' march on Oruro.

It said the miners were unable to recover the bodies of their dead or attend the wounded.

The radio called for doctors, nurses, ambulances and Red Cross workers to help.

In La Paz, the government declared that "subversion is on the march."

Classes were suspended in all schools, and the official radio called for a meeting of members of the government's nationalist revolutionary movement (MNR) in La Paz this afternoon.

Scattered shooting was heard throughout the night in the outskirts of La Paz. But elsewhere, the streets were quiet.

Student Riots Break Out in Puerto Rico

SAN JUAN, P. R., (AP)—Police used clubs, tear gas and shots in the air last night to break up a leftist-led riot on Puerto Rico university's Rio Piedras campus in which nine persons were injured and 11 arrested.

Classes at Rio Piedras were suspended until Nov. 5, but will continue as usual at the university's branches in Mayaguez and Humacao.

The rioting started when about 80 students supporting the small independence movement (MPI) staged a sit-down demonstration on campus.

The demonstration exploded into violence involving several hundred persons.

The rioters stoned police, overturned and burned one police car and smashed vending machines and bulletin boards in the university library.

Jaime Benites, president of the university, blamed the violence on "professional political agitators." It was not certain immediately whether all of the arrested rioters were bona fide students.

Clov. Luis Munoz Marin apparently linked the outbreak with MPI efforts to organize a boycott of the polls Tuesday, when island residents elect a governor and other local officials.

Wild Burro Races Slated in Nevada

BEATTY, Nev., Oct. 29 (AP)—What's billed as the "world championship wild burro race" is slated for this desert community Nov. 6 as part of Nevada's statehood centennial celebration.

The burros entered in the 40-mile race are supposed to be wild, rounded up on the Nevada desert.

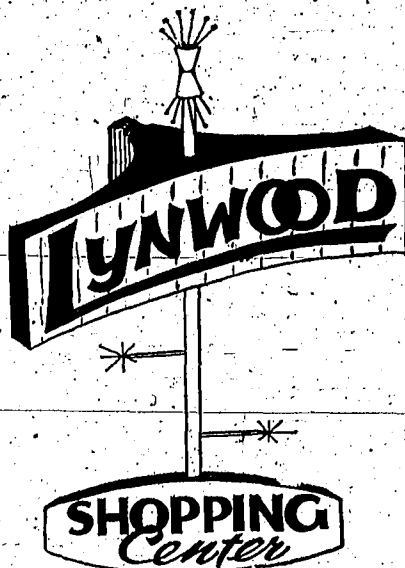

Last year, observers said the burros escaped from their jockeys at least 40 times.

Prize money totals $1,600. Proceeds from the event go to the Lions club eye foundation for children.

Traffic Counter In Utah Stolen

LOGAN, Oct. 29 (AP)—Police said yesterday that a $500 automatic traffic counter which had been operating adjacent to the Utah State university campus had been stolen.

The counter, owned by the Utah state road commission, was located at Seventh and Ninth streets east.

Borah Is Unanimous Pick In Idaho Football Poll; T.F., Burley Are Fourth

For the first time this season the Borah Lions, winners of the 1963 Associated Press poll, collected all first place votes as 13 ballots gave the nod to coach Ed Tressel's capital city crew. But while the Lions were amassing 130 points for the top rung, cross-town rival Boise, beaten 7-3 by Medford, Ore., last week, had to fight off Idaho Falls for the runner-up position. The Braves nabbed 101 points for the Tigers.

Several Magie Valley men will be included in the festivities.

Twin Falls will send football players Tim Robertson and Tom Licens while Kimberly has Milton Ballard and Nihil sends Tony Machacek. In addition to these men, two others figured prominently in that 1929 season but have since died. They are Floyd Lingo, former Twin Falls farmer, and a former Twin Falls football coach Felix Platinio, who starred at Southern Branch and later at the University of Idaho before turning out to be a 36-yard kickoff return. Two years later Ballard set a scoring record that still stands when he got six touchdowns against Western Montana of Dillon. The reunion boys' team will like to remember the score of that game, too. It was Southern Branch 103, Western Montana 0.

There is another little by-play from the team of 1929 that affects Twin Falls. One of the men recruited by coach Platinio was Elvin Kelly, who was a standout there. He stayed in Pocatello, where he reared a son, Wally Kelly. Wally was the chief culprit when Pocatello handed the Bruins their worst defeat—54-0—and later was Pocatello high school coach.

Magie Valley offers only one baseball player but he was team captain. He is Dave Jensen, who resides in Burley. Jensen also was student body president at the Pocatello college.

The talk about the good old days will take place at a luncheon

Pirates Make Hiring Official

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 28 (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates made it official Tuesday by announcing the club has hired Johnny Pesky as a coach.

Reports had circulated the last few days that Pesky, former Boston Red Sox manager, would be picked up by the Pirates' new manager, Harry (The Hat) Walker.

Before the game, followed by the halftime ceremony.

In addition, Idaho State will induct some more men into the school's hall of fame and it is a good bet Magie Valley will be represented in that ritual, too.

Bruins Invade Nampa Friday; Strong Nears 1,000-Yard Mark

With their faint championship hopes snuffed out in last week's loss to Caldwell, the Twin Falls Bruins go after the Nampa Bulldogs at 8:30 p.m. Friday night with the hope of salvaging third spot in the Southern Idaho conference. Dropping the 36-29 decision to the Cougars in their most inconsistent game of the year, the Bruins have only Nampa and Boise remaining on their schedule and both games are on the road. A review of the game films prompted coach Paul Ostyn to call the Bruins' showing against Caldwell "our poorest team effort of the year."

We had absolutely no blocking downfield but still our backs did a pretty good job of running. Where they killed us was on defense. I've always felt defense is 90 per cent desire to hit somebody and evidently the boys just didn't have that desire Friday night," Ostyn said.

"But I have to say that (Steve) Garman is a pretty fair football player. And (Roger) Cantlon is a great end. Probably the best we've seen around here in years," he added.

With four men out with injuries and illness, coach Ostyn views the Bulldogs with some trepidation. Lost for the season is starting center Paul Stover with a bruised kidney; Mike Heinrich dislocated a shoulder; Duane Marshall has a knee injury and Terry Amos is ill.

Nampa has proved an in and out ball club, winning by big margins and losing by bigger ones.

"It seems to be a case of getting the jump on Nampa," Ostyn said. "Any team that has gotten an early score seems to go pretty well against them. But I imagine they also are remembering last year when Twin Falls won 44-0." Ostyn continued. "These kids remember from year to year and something like that probably still rattles them. I expect a very tough game."

It also will be a special game in another way. Ostyn played football under coach Jerry Del-

Winning World Series Meant $3,662 to Cards

NEW YORK, Oct. 29 (AP)—The difference between winning and losing the world series was $3,812.00. That was the spread between each St. Louis Cardinal winning share of $8,622.10 and each full New York Yankee losing share of $5,809.20. The official shares, announced Wednesday by commissioner Ford Frick, has few surprises. As had been reported previously, Mel Stottlemyre, Yankee rookie pitcher, got a full share, and Yankee pitcher, got a full share, and Yogi Berra, a star in Cleveland in early September, drew one-half share of $2,904.65.

The fact that Harry Bright, reserve infielder who was sent to Richmond in mid-May also got $2,904.65 was interesting.

The Cardinals voted three-fourths of a share to Harvey Schultz, the 38-year-old knuckle ball pitcher who helped them so much down the stretch in the National league race. Schultz got $3,806.64.

So did Dal Maxwell, the utility infielder who played second base all during the series in place of the injured Julian Javier.

The winning and losing shares were far short of the records set last year when the Los Angeles Dodgers got $12,704 each for winning and the Yankees drew $7,874.32 in spite of their four straight defeats.

The difference between the size of the Dodgers' and the 30,000 plus capacity of the stadium in St. Louis made the difference in money.

For the first time the fifth-place teams participated in the player pool. Commissioner Frick estimated this out about $100 off the shares of the Cards and Yanks.

Fifth place was worth $218.81 for each full share with the Milwaukee Braves and $105.02 for each Los Angeles Angel.

Philadelphia and Cincinnati tied for second in the National so they split second and third money because of a different voting on shares, each tied got $1,254.76 and each Phil $1,186.63.

The Chicago White Sox received $1,460.61 for finishing second in the American league and Baltimore drew $971.25 for coming in third. San Francisco's fourth place also was worth $467.67 and Detroit's fourth place $509.69.

WORKS ON PASSING

SEATTLE, Oct. 29 (AP)—The University of Washington Huskies worked out under the lights Wednesday on a passing attack they hope will thwart Southern Cal in their Saturday football game.

PRINCESS LITTLE CLOUD

will team with Linda Carroll in meeting Maria Dammell and Betty Boucher in a tag team match that will be part of a wrestling program at Radio Rodeo Monday night. Preliminaries begin at 8:30 p.m.

Women's Tilt

Features Mat Program

A women's tag team wrestling match will highlight a professional card at 8:30 p.m. Monday at the Radio Rodeo.

In the match will be Marie Dammell and Betty Boucher against Linda Carroll and Princess Little Cloud, who claims Apache royalty.

The main event will pit 285-pound Big Lyle Sharp against the infamous Krusher Kowalski.

A preliminary will send Karl Von Brock, Berlin, Germany, against Joe Mellich, while the curtain-raiser high popular Bill Melby taking on Al Hey.

The card is the second of the season promoted here by Guy Brunetti Salt Lake City, who formerly was a member of a tag team that claimed the world championship. Referee for the Monday bouts will be Larry Evans.

Rookie Shows Well in NFL Statistics

NEW YORK, Oct. 29 (AP)—Charles Taylor, Washington's No. 1 draft choice, is pressing

Jimmy Brown of Cleveland for total yardage gained in the latest National Football league statistics.

Taylor is the only rookie listed among the leaders in both rushing and passing. He has gained 300 running and 355 passing add up to 753 as compared to Brown's 841.

Of course Brown still holds a comfortable lead in the rushing department with 604 yards to 599 by Don Perkins of Dallas. Taylor ranks fifth behind John Henry Johnson of Pittsburgh and Jim Taylor of Green Bay. In the pass receiving rankings, led by Johnny Morris of Chicago with 51 for 622 yards, Charley Taylor is tied for seventh with 26 catches.

Johnny Unitas of the high-flying Baltimore Colts is the top passer in the standings based on percentage of completions 82, touchdown passes 13, interception percentage, 2.1, and average yards gained, 24.7. Bart Starr of Green Bay and Fran Tarkenton of Minnesota are the top contenders.

Larry Moore of Baltimore leads the scoring race with 65 points on 11 touchdowns. Then comes Jim Bakken, St. Louis' kicker, with 63. Seven of the 10 top scorers are kickers; only one of whom, Paul Hornung of Green Bay, also carries the ball.

SIGNS WITH COLTS

HOUSTON, Oct. 29 (AP)—Howie Pollitt, pitching coach for the Chicago St. Louis Cardinals, was named to a similar position Wednesday with the Houston Colt.

Twin Falls Construction Volume Rises

Dollar volume of building activity in Twin Falls during the month of September totaled $1,375,875, Equitable Savings and Loan association reports. Dwellings accounted for $73,000 of the total.

The Twin Falls total was a 54 per cent increase over August, 1963, but was eight per cent less than September, 1963, when dollar volume totaled $1,010,775.

July's dollar volume of construction, according to $130,800 in August to $14,000 in September, a drop of 89 per cent. The September figure fell 64 per cent from September, 1963.

Dollar volume of building activity in the entire state of Idaho during September totaled $5,106,608, a 41 per cent increase over August and a 60 per cent rise over September of the previous year.

Reds Launch Cosmos Satellite

MOSCOW, Oct. 28 (UPI)—The Soviet Union yesterday launched an unmanned satellite, the 50th in the Cosmos series.

The official Soviet news agency Tass said Cosmos-50 was launched with scientific apparatus aboard to continue space exploration in accordance with the program announced March 16, 1962.

The last unmanned satellite in the series, Cosmos-49, was launched Oct. 24.

The latest Soviet space shot came exactly two weeks after the Russians launched Voshkod, the first passenger space ship. Voshkod (sunrise) carried pilot Vladimir Yermakov, scientist Konstantin Pektolov and Dr. Boris Yegorov 16 times around the Earth in 24 hours and 17 minutes.

ROSCOE WAGNER SEZ...

Thursday, I brought to your attention information about how Senator Bluck endorsed the Idaho senate Memorial No. 6 (the so-called "Liberty Amendment"). Here are additional services that would have to be CURTAILED or even ELIMINATED under this DRASTIC, disastrous and dangerous piece of legislation:

- Air pollution, water pollution and radiological health control activities.
- Research and training in chronic diseases of the aged.
- Grants for construction of waste treatment facilities in local communities.
- Air traffic control and navigation services to safely handle the steadily increasing volume of air traffic.
- Civilian weather observation and forecasting service.
- Coast Guard activities.
- School lunch programs to more than 14 million children that distributed over 2.6 billion half pints of milk in 1962 alone.
- Curtailment or elimination many, many more services including serious cut-back (one-half) in our military defense programs.

Such a drastic movement would have crippled this country beyond your wildest imagination...

Why did Sen. Bluck endorse this movement... maybe he wasn't thinking... but, then again? Why? Please watch for me when I speak to you on KNVT, 7:30 this Sunday.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, Oct. 29—Born to-day, you seem to have been born with the courage of your convictions. Never one to straddle the fence or hop on to a winning bandwagon, you willingly state your opinion on any issue, large or small, to anyone interested enough to ask. Your cause may be popular or unpopular, but that will have no bearing on your taking advantage of the right to be heard.

Nor are you one to sit on the sidelines or to remain in the background speaking your piece. You are quite willing to take a position in the front line of action, putting words to the test of deeds. You care little whether you make friends or enemies through those deeds, so long as you keep faith with yourself and with those who have kept faith with you.

Mentally and emotionally stable, you would never under any circumstances, jump off the deep end. There may be times when the pressures of setting your own conviction against existing conditions seem more than you can bear, but you will remain firm, in undeniable possession of your faculties. This, ultimately, is the secret of your success.

Among those born on this date are: James Bonwell, noted biographer of Samuel Johnson; William H. Mauldin, Pulitzer Prize-winning political cartoonist; Louis Blanc, French statesman, historian.

To find what is in store for you tomorrow, select your birthday and read the corresponding paragraph. Let your birthday star be your daily guide.

Friday, Oct. 30

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 23)—Business and pleasure meet on a field of mutual benefit. Make sure to maintain an even balance between them.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)—Not a day to seek release from conventional life. You would be wise to follow the rule of the majority.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 20)—Though you may have to undergo censure for minor mistakes on larger issues, you should meet with nothing but success.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)—The firmer check you keep on your natural responses to others, the better. Not the day for unbridled spontaneity.

Harding Is Attacked on Farm Issue

BOISE, Oct. 29 (Special)—Ralph Harding's approach to the Idaho farmers' problem is a little like the ostrich that sticks his head in the sand and doesn't think he can be seen, John O. McMurray, Idaho GOP chairman, said today.

"Evidently, Harding thinks if he says everything is fine, then, like the ostrich, everyone will agree and he will be safely hidden from the true facts."

McMurray said today:

"We have been around the state talking to farmers and ranchers in nearly every community of Idaho and almost without exception they say they are in the worst condition they have been in years."

"Cattlemen are hard hit, wheat prices are down, sugar beet growers are worried," McMurray continued. "In fact, many farmers are unable to meet their notes as they come due this fall."

"While all this is happening to the Idaho farmer," McMurray said, "Ralph Harding is running around the state bragging about his position on the agricultural committee and saying that his seniority in congress will be of great benefit to the Idaho farmer. In view of the lowest farm income in years, one would assume Harding would be very silent about any personal contact or any connection with Idaho agriculture."

"He points with pride to the fact that he voted against the wheat-cotton bill. His opposition to it must have been a little like an asthmatic trying to blow out a hurricane."

"We desperately need congressmen that will stand up and be heard," McMurray said, "one that will give a feeble 'no' to such a crippling bill to Idaho farmers when the administration will let him off the hook because they have enough votes without him and the pressure from home is too great."

Schools to Get Data on Smoking

BOISE, Oct. 29 (UPI)—The state department of education said Wednesday a research and reference kit concerning information on smoking and health for use in junior high schools will be mailed to all school districts in the state this week.

LYBIA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)—Avoid becoming overly excited in the event of a surprise happening. You can overcome confusion by re-establishing calm.
